

Children and young people have rights!

There is the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child.

That is a contract. This contract says which rights children have. Many countries have signed this contract, including Austria.

There are 3 important points in children's rights:

1. Equal treatment

All children and young people are equally important.

2. Well-being of the child

The most important thing is:
Children should always thrive.

3. Co-determination

Every child can say what they think.
Every child is allowed to have a say.
In all decisions.

Children and young people are very important to us. We help children and young people so that they thrive.

All children and young people should come to us of their own free will.

>> That means:
Only if they themselves want to.

*At our organisation,
you don't have to pay anything.*

You don't have to say any name.

We do not tell anyone.

We represent children

>> That means:
We speak for children.

- 😊 We say what children need.
- 😊 We highlight where there are problems.
- 😊 We say how something can become better.
- 😊 We help children so that they are heard.
- 😊 We do projects with children.
- 😊 We check laws.
